PTA ACTIVITIES

PTA Council Elementary

An organizational meeting for the Meadow Park PTA was held Wednesday Nov. 17 at 7:30 p. m. in the school with the Torrance Council past president and 33rd district extension chairman, Mrs. A. C. Turner officiating. She was assisted by Mrs. W. A. Wright, Torrance Council president and her officers.
 This unit was the third new one organized this year in the new Torrance schools. Evelyn Carr, Howard Wood, and Meadow Park and makes a total of 15 PTA units in the Torrance Council.
 For the purpose of providing information and to stimulate interest in the activities and services of PTA, a six week PTA information course is being given in the library lecture room at 9:30 a. m. on Fridays led by Mrs. A. C. Turner.

At a recent Torrance Council PTA board meeting Mrs. Robert Payne, membership chairman, announced that the recent membership drive had resulted in 7,522 PTA is vitally concerned with the shortage of schools and teachers and assists in every way to improve this condition. Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools appeared before the council to discuss the problem.

186th Street

A subject of vital concern to all parents will be featured at today's 9 p.m. meeting of the 186th St. School PTA, when Mr. Dan Mulock, supervisor, Educational Housing, Los Angeles Board of Education, will discuss the school building program, with particular emphasis on the future plans for the 186th St. School.

Mrs. Nadine Stewart, Mrs. Leah Douglas, and Mrs. Joan Hardin, a trio who brings pleasure to patients at Harbor General Hospital every Sunday, will sing. The customary social hour will follow the meeting. Fourth grade room representatives will be hosts and hostesses, while the fourth grade teachers will be honorary hosts and hostesses. Nursery care will be provided.

was voted to be given to a development school.
 Mrs. A. Bonwell, principal of the Halldale Ave. School, thanked the board members for their cooperation at the Halloween Carnival and also announced that a new teacher has been added to the staff, making a total now of 36 teachers. The next PTA meeting will be held today at the school.

Greenwood

This evening at 7:30 o'clock, Torrance Elementary School PTA will hold its monthly association meeting at the school auditorium.
 Mrs. J. Shidler, program chairman, reports that this meeting will feature a student-panel discussion entitled "We're Not Problems—We're People." Parents and students are being asked to submit questions and problems for discussion and questions from the floor will also be discussed.
 Also on the program is a very instructive and entertaining film on "Safety," written, produced, and filmed by Mrs. Kratoch and her third grade class.
 Coffee and pumpkin pie will be served after the meeting by the fifth grade mothers, hostesses for the evening.
 The monthly board meeting of the Torrance Elementary School PTA was held last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. William O'Brien, 1695 Gramercy Ave.

Among the many items discussed were additional contributions by Torrance Elementary School PTA to the Milk Fund, help for needy children in the school, the success of the recent Western Show held at the school playground and a report by Mrs. J. D. Dutton, ways and means chairman, on coming fund-raising campaigns.
 Mrs. Dutton has announced that another paper and rag drive will be held in January, and that sometime in the spring another rummage sale will be held. She also stated that if anyone has anything at all for use in the rummage sale, they can either deliver it to the school or arrange to have it picked up by calling Mrs. Dutton at FA 8-1687. Items picked up now will be stored at the school for use in the spring sale.

G-W Council

Mrs. W. G. Donhoff, director of the Home Service Bureau for the Los Angeles Tenth District and her entire staff will present the program for the Nov. 19 luncheon meeting of the Garden-Wilmington Council PTA to be held at the Delores Street School, 22311 Caballero Ave., with Mrs. Michael Foxhoven, presiding.

A membership poster contest will be held with entries from the 17 local PTA units. Judges will be members of Mrs. Donhoff's staff. A potluck luncheon will follow the business meeting, with members of the Delores St. School PTA serving as hostesses. Home Service chairman are especially invited to attend.

259th Place

Wednesday evening 259th Pl. PTA held an interesting international panel discussion on education in the 259th Pl. School auditorium at 7:30 o'clock. Charles Boss, of the Harbor Junior College teaching staff, announced the names of the panelists. They were Misses Coradelli Libana, of Italy; Irmgard Geiger, of Germany; Branka Trnava, of Yugoslavia; Mrs. Blanca Sulzma, of Honduras; Messrs. Lawrence D. Neron, of Canada and Ali Shabani, of Iran. Dwight Gamber of the speech class at the college, acted as moderator. Questions from the audience were answered at the end of the discussion.
 At a recent PTA board meeting at the home of Mrs. W. E. Zell, president, the paper drive was discussed. The proceeds will be divided between the school and the PTA. There will be a prize given to the student in each room who brings the most papers and a prize to the student from the school as a whole, bringing the largest number of rags.

It was also decided to purchase an "In Memoriam" book in memory of Mrs. Leola Lang. Desk stands will also be purchased and given to the school to use with the present microphone heads. Five dollars was voted to the Exceptional Children's Christmas Fund and $5 toward a Thanksgiving food basket for a needy family.

NORTH TORRANCE
 North Torrance Elementary PTA met at the school at 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 10.
 The association voted money for two Thanksgiving baskets and that a letter be written to the Board of Education asking that a new school be named in memory of Donald Robison.
 Mrs. Booth's first grade and Mrs. Pilgrim's fifth grade won the prizes for the rooms having the most parents present.
 Mrs. Stoeckle announced that a den mother for a Cub Scout den is needed in the Crenshaw Manor district.
 Mrs. Bose, a first grade teacher, and ten first grade students gave a reading demonstration. Since it was Fathers Night, and the theme was "Dads in the Saddle," a quintet of fathers consisting of Duane Sherwood, Paul Clayton, John Mangiagli, Walt Bromson and Robert Richter sang "You Are My Sunshine" and "This Ole House" accompanied by Jerry Richter on the guitar. Sgt. Evans of the Torrance Police Department gave a talk on "Hot Rods and Drag Strips—And Their Place in the Community." A film on automobile drivers was also shown.
